HUMAN SLAIN IN STORE

RAZE CAUSE OF $25,000 DAMAGE TO AUTO SHOP

Fire of undetermined origin shortly before 3 o'clock this morning caused a loss estimated to be $25,000 to the Weber Auto and Trailer Works, at 686-690 North Spring street. Efficient work of the fire department in containing the blaze to the second story of the factory prevented a heavier loss.

The pattern shop, a two-story frame building containing valuable machinery and patterns for autos and fire escapes, was saved from the flames. A large number of automobiles on the first floor of the damaged building were removed by the firemen, the loss being confined to machinery and other equipment on the second floor.

LOTHARIO IS OUTCLASSED, SAYS FARRAR

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE) NEW YORK, March 19.—Lou Tellegen, actor, who is being sued for divorce by Geraldine Farrar, former Metropolitan Opera star, was described today as a Don Juan of stage, screen and Othello, by witnesses testifying for the divorce before Referee Thomas H. Mahony.

These witnesses named two "strikingly beautiful" young women as co-respondents. One was Miss Lorna Ambler, an Australian actress. The other was referred to only as "Miss L.", an American actress, who played in the same company with Tellegen in 1931.

A third woman, said to be known in San Francisco as Beanie Clifford, was named in the complaint, but no mention was made of her today.

Two of the witnesses, W. F. Beers and Louis Malhaner, owners of bungalows in a colony on Sausalito, described the "month of bliss" spent in July, 1931, by Tellegen and Miss Ambler in a cottage facing the sea.

Beers said he rented one of his bungalows to a man named Rankin, said to be Tellegen's secretary. Rankin and his wife spent several days in the bungalow before Tellegen and the young woman arrived. Beers said he didn't pay much attention to the occupants of the cottage, but that he knew they lived there together. Several times he saw them on the beach.

Malhaner testified that he didn't know who Tellegen was, even after he had been told his name, but that he talked and had noobed with him on occasions. "Tellegen and the girl, he said, made daily excursions on the water in Tellegen's boat. Tellegen always left the cottage first and went to the dock, and the girl would follow later by another route. Most times they were in bathing suits.

Once, Malhaner testified, he was helping repair a motor at a neighbor's shack and Tellegen happened by. He said he saw the girl with a heavy sack of groceries over her shoulder came up the path.

"Oh, Lou," she said, according to Malhaner, "this is so heavy I don't think I can carry it any further."

HE ORDERS CHOPS "Oh, yes, Babe, you can carry it all right. Run along now. There's some chops in the box. Fix them for supper. I'll be over shortly," Tellegen said, and Malhaner identified the photograph of Tellegen and the girl as the couple who spent the "month of bliss" in Sausalito.

DEMOCRATS IN DILEMMA OVER CANDIDATES

(BY ROBERT BARRY) (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) (Copyright, 1933, Public Ledger.) WASHINGTON, March 19.—While Chairman Hull was performing his set task of partisan attack on the Presidential second-term announcement by Atty.-Gen. Daugherty, other Democrats today were speculating on where they stood in the matter of party candidates. It was the view that a "liberal" or "progressive" or something-or-other opposed to the conservatism of Mr. Harding would be named.

The Daugherty declaration enhanced the chances of such men as William G. McAdoo, Henry Ford, James M. Cox and one or two other lesser lights. It militated against the hopes of Senator Oscar Underwood, Senator Samuel M. Hays and John W. Davis.

The first-named group has sought to keep step with the thought of the middle western agricultural groups and the union labor vote. The others are not.

Soviet Government Holds Unchecked Sway in Russia

(BY GEORGE SELDES) (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) (Copyright, 1933, by the Chicago Tribune.) MOSCOW, March 19.—The social revolutionary party, the one big anti-Bolshevik element remaining in Russia, has capitulated. At a congress specially called to decide the future of the party, it was decided to give up its secret as well as open struggle against the soviet system.

The party has agreed to accept the present order of government and to permit the members to do what they please. After considerable discussion, a resolution was passed stating that opposition to the government was hopeless and futile and that it was better to form a united front for the welfare of Russia.

DRAMATIC ACTION Thus at a moment when Premier Lenin is suffering from a serious illness and when a large part of the world, especially all Europe is anxiously asking what next will take the place in Russia, the social revolutionaries took their dramatic action. The decision of the party to accept the present order of government was a blow to the anti-Bolshevik movement.

The social revolutionary party at one time was controlled by the governments of Saratov and the Georgian republic. It was so powerful that once there was a possibility of its taking over the government. It gave the soviet their most serious moments during the Kronstadt rebellion.

It was Fannie Kaplan, a member of the social revolutionary party, who in attempting to kill Lenin wounded him twice, which, according to many persons, caused the Premier's present state of health. Following the attempted assassination, the Communist party proclaimed a red terror reign which in the course of a year cleared Russia of the greatest part of the anti-Bolshevik movement.

LENIN IS DICTATOR Practically every statesman with whom I talked during my two months' trip in western Europe has expressed the opinion that there will be a big change following Lenin's death. Recent bulletins announce improvements in the Premier's health, but the time will come eventually when Russia's leader must give up the dictatorship to someone else.

Soviet officials who have been questioned regarding the general opinion abroad that a peasant revolution will follow Lenin's death to how long he would stay or as to his proposed movements.

Indian Woman, 126 Years Old, Passes Beyond

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE) SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—S.O.S. calls from the steamer Ophir, saying she was off the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, the coming of Mexicans to California last Friday, according to the death occurred here today. The death occurred during the annual "cry for the dead" of the Indians of the valley.

Indian leaders said the woman often had told them of witnessing the coming of Mexicans to California and later the arrival of the first American settlers. She had met Gen. John A. Sutter, founder of Sacramento, and she claimed to have witnessed the shooting down of Indians at Coloma by Federal soldiers.

RAIN OF BULLETS FOLLOWS BANDIT'S DEMAND FOR CASH

The command of a drug-store bandit last night to "open her up," referring to the cash register, drew instead a stream of lead from the druggist's automatic, and J. C. Palmer, a confessed robber of a dozen drug stores in the last two months, died in the Receiving Hospital from wounds he received.

Palmer lived at Locust and Queen streets, in Inglewood. His young wife, summoned to the hospital, said he had never told her what he was doing, and her first knowledge that her husband was a bandit came last night.

The store which Palmer attempted to rob is at 5379 Moneta avenue. G. H. Skinner, the proprietor, was in the prescription room at the rear of the store when Palmer entered. Skinner's clerk, in the front of the store, was bending over a counter for something, and was not in sight of the bandit.

Skinner was held up about a year ago, and has since carried an automatic in his pocket. He walked toward the front of the store with his hand on his pistol, and confronted Palmer near the cash register. Palmer's weapon menaced him.

"All right, open her up," commanded the bandit.

Apparently about to comply, Skinner stepped to a position where he could draw his own weapon without his first motion being seen. Then he "opened up" with a hail of bullets, two of which pierced Palmer's body near the heart, two more of which went through his right arm. A fifth creased the bandit's back as he staggered away, and turned to run.

Palmer managed to get out of the store, and into an auto belonging to Fred K. Harris, 115 West Fifth street, and probably with the idea of trying to escape. Motorcycle Officer J. J. Moran, attracted by the shooting, came up at this time, and went into the store.

REDS SHRINK AT STORY OF NEW WITNESS

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE) ST. JOSEPH (Mich.) March 19.—Secrets of the organization of the Communist convention held in the mad dunes near here last August were revealed here today in Circuit Court, when K-97, Department of Justice agent who attended the meeting as a delegate, took the stand as the State's star witness against William Z. Foster, charged with criminal syndicalism.

K-97—his number in the files of the government secret service—Francis Morrow of Camden, N. J. Among the Communists who were known to K-97 at the convention, where all delegates used assumed names, he was called Day.

Morrow identified the delegates list of the convention, the regulations of the grounds committee, which directed it, of the stewards who policed it, and the program, agenda, convention call, party program and constitution of the Communist party of America.

He told how he was chosen a delegate from the Communist group in Philadelphia and Camden, and how he left Philadelphia, with Alexander Hall and John Greengard, two other delegates.

CONVENTION OPENED The convention, the witness said, was opened by Jay Lovestone of New York, soon after which Ben Gitlow, alias Louis, of New York, who is now in Sing Sing prison serving a sentence under the espionage laws of New York, was elected chairman.

C. L. Smith, Assistant Attorney-General of Michigan, tried twice to introduce in evidence the program and constitution of the Communist party, which the witness had identified, but each time Judge Charles White sustained objections by Frank P. Walsh, chief of counsel for Foster, that the documents had not yet been properly identified.

The witness described the convention in detail. Sessions, he said, were held in a deep ravine, between two lofty sand dunes, which were reached by a series of planks placed on cement blocks to form a half circle on the terraced hillside. A record crowd turned out this ONE MAN MISSING

When the Department of Justice agents and Sheriff's posse swept down on the convention on the morning of August 23, last year, they found seventeen men still there, and arrested them. Weeks later, when the prisoners were arraigned, there were only sixteen. The whereabouts of the seventeenth became a mystery.

That he was a government agent attending the meeting in disguise did not become known until Morrow's prosecution in proceeding brought to extradite Alexander.

Fleet Proves Its Worth in Battle at Panama Canal

(BY NAVY WIRELESS-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) BALBOA (Panama) March 19.—Two battleships were disabled, theoretically, by torpedoes and a destroyer squadron was annihilated, theoretically, by battleship shell fire, in the "war" of the United States fleet off the Pacific entrance of the Panama Canal today.

The maneuvers demonstrated the effectiveness of torpedo attacks by destroyers, of which the United States has 250, far more than any other nation, although 250 are laid up and deteriorating, due to the lack of personnel.

The day's operations also demonstrated the excellence of the battleship's gunnery and tactics of defense against a torpedo attack, but disclosed a disastrous lack of light cruisers and a deficiency in torpedoes, disabled theoretically by torpedoes, against a torpedo attack and a deficiency in efficiency of aircraft.

NO LIGHT CRUISERS The United States has no light cruisers, but is building ten, nine of which will be delivered next June. Japan has twenty-seven built and building, and Great Britain forty-six.

MERCURY CLIMBS IN EAST

(BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE) CHICAGO, March 19.—A marked moderation in temperature in some places and a forecast of "fair and warmer" tonight registered the end of the most severe March storms that the Great Lakes region and the Mississippi Valley has ever known.

New low temperature records for the month were established in many places throughout the Middle West last night and early today, when the storm swept through this region on its way from Alaska to the southern part of the United States. New records were established at points in Missouri, Tennessee and Texas, while other points in the north recorded the coldest late March weather in a half century.

Higher temperatures and sunshine today began melting the huge banks of snow which have been blocking and impeding all forms of travel in parts of Iowa and Nebraska. Heavy snowfall was prevalent in the entire storm-swept area, snow falling as far south as Birmingham, Ala. It was expected that train service, which has been abandoned in some places and delayed from twelve to twenty-eight hours in other places, would be returned to normal soon.

Damage to crops was expected to run into the millions, it being estimated that the Oklahoma peach crop alone was damaged to the extent of more than $1,000,000.

Some live stock was frozen to death at Council Bluffs, Iowa, when a train was stalled during a blizzard there yesterday.

Reports from Milwaukee stated that every coal office in the city was besieged today with orders for fuel, three blizzards in rapid succession having left thousands of coal bins empty.

(Wash.) Robbers Steal Fortune in Stamps and Cash; Little Trace is Left (BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE) WASHINGTON, March 19.—No trace had been found tonight of the robbers who broke into the Olympia postoffice early this morning and carried off a fortune in stamps and cash.

The robbers carried off $47,000 worth of stamps stolen in addition to several hundred dollars taken from registered Postmaster Frank A. Clem.

Case of Two—Inspector Case expressed the opinion that little would be learned from the fingerprints, although the robbers left a number of tools lying about.

The crackmen forced an entrance through a coal chute at the south end of the basement after cutting the telephone wires on the outside. They then pried open two heavy inside doors and first made their way to the vault in the private office of Postmaster Clem.

The vault was pried off and two sets of doors drilled. The same method was used in later pried off the vault to the money order vault on the opposite end of the building.

A charge of nitroglycerin was recently used to blow open the steel cabinet safe in the second vault. This explosion was heard by the night clerk in a hotel a block and a half away which led to the belief that the robbery occurred at about 4 o'clock.

MARLEY, LOCKARD AND "RED" KILLEFER BUY SEATTLE BALL TEAM

PARTY KRUG IS PROBABLE NEW MANAGER OF NIFTY ANGELS

Owners of Stuwashes Have Controlling Interest of Stock; Wolverton May Be Used as a Scout; Officials Give Views

ST. HENRY & WILLIAMS

Los Angeles has at last succeeded in breaking into baseball on its own terms, thereby realizing an ambition of eighteen months' standing.

Marley, Lockard and "Red" Killefer, a prominent attorney of Los Angeles, yesterday closed the deal for the purchase of a controlling interest in the Seattle team.

which could not be accepted under the present ruling. If this ruling is changed, every club will be free to strengthen with players from the majors, and this may change the entire complexion of the 1933 race.

OFFICIALS GIVE THEIR VIEWS

When President W. H. McCarthy was advised of the purchase of the Seattle club by Los Angeles men, he said:

"I am not surprised at the news. I have been advising for some time that Killefer and Lockard were negotiating for the Seattle club and I know that Lockard for some time has been in Seattle going over the books. That means, it is a question of whether the Seattle club has been purchased with the money of that of Lockard."

Added to the main event will be two Southern Pacific championship swimming races. The first, a 100-yard breast stroke for men, and the second, the 250-yard free style for women. Each of these races is expected to be hard fought and wild scrambles are predicted at the finish.

A 100-yard free style race for men and a fifty-yard free style race for women will also be run off.

Added to these, a Southern California League championship water polo game between the Los Angeles Athletic Club and Redondo will be held. Both of these teams appear to be the strongest in the league, and the winner is expected to walk off with the league title in easy fashion. The meet is open to the public.

JAKIE MAY HEAVES IN FINE FORM

Essick's Star Twirler Pitches Against Chadbourne; Only Two Hits Made

BY ED O'MALLEY

Bill Essick swung his axe of noon in the heating department yesterday at Malar Park, with the result that Jakie May went five innings in almost invincible fashion.

The Coast's star twirler of 1931 showed in almost mid-season form, only two mealy hits being registered off him. Jakie's control was perfect, and he worked the corners to a nicety. James followed in the wake of May, officiating the final four innings. The stalwart was in fine fettle, letting the Chadbournes down with three blunders.

The game was the twelfth between the teams of Hannah and Chadbourne, and resulted in a victory for Hannah 6 to 3. Jolly and Davis were on the mound for Chadbourne.

Manager Essick got busy today with the pruning-knife, which he swung into his list of rookies. He cut out three of his youngsters.

deal has been completed. However, I imagine if it will prove a good thing for the league, and hope that the result will be to restore harmony. All that we want is harmonious relations which will benefit the entire league."

Asked that in case the deal had been completed if there would be an early meeting of the directors, Patrick said he did not know the minds of the other directors, but thought that eventually there might be such a meeting. In that event, it is probable that all action taken at the annual meeting in Portland will be rescinded.

SANTEL IS TOO GOOD FOR STROH

Light-Heavyweight Mat Champ. Downs Taft Grappler in Straight Falls

Ad Santel, world's champion light heavyweight wrestler, was over Herman Stroh last night in two straight falls at the Philharmonic Auditorium before a large crowd of fans.

The first fall went to Santel in one hour and twelve minutes with a double side ra. Stroh, who weighs 210 pounds, proved a formidable adversary for the champion. By sheer force of strength he wriggled out of many of Santel's pet holds. After a long session, however, Ad secured a double scissors and gradually forced the big fellow's shoulders to the canvas.

The second fall came in twenty-five minutes and twenty-four seconds, and was accomplished with a double side ra. Stroh, who weighs 210 pounds, proved a formidable adversary for the champion. By sheer force of strength he wriggled out of many of Santel's pet holds. After a long session, however, Ad secured a double scissors and gradually forced the big fellow's shoulders to the canvas.

In the mixed bout, Bobb Hamilton, wrestler, won over Frankie Matthews, boxer, 118 pounds, in two and a half minutes, prying Frankie's shoulders to the canvas. Billy Cox was timekeeper, William Rowan of New York, referee, and Dan Tobey, announcer.

JOE BURMAN WINS OVER JOE LYNCH

(REUTERS DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, March 19.—Joe Burman, Chicago weight, tonight decisively defeated Joe Lynch, champion of the 118 pounders here. The decision was given by newspaper men.

Burman showed beyond all question of a doubt he has a fighter's heart. He was caught off his balance in the first round and Lynch caught him flush on the jaw with a right hook. Burman went down but was up before Referee Davis Miller could count. Burman weathered the storm but the round went to Lynch.

Europeans All Say That Siki Still Holds Title

(BY A. P. NEWS WIRE)

NEW YORK, March 19.—Mike Mtigue, Irish-American boxer, who won the world's light-heavyweight championship Saturday in Dublin by defeating Battling Siki, probably will defend his newly won laurels against Georges Carpentier, it was revealed tonight after announcement by "Tex" Rickard that he had obtained an option on Mtigue's services.

The promoter's option was secured through Mtigue's manager, Joe Jacobs, who is in this country. Negotiations would be started at once, Rickard said, to bring Siki's conqueror and Carpentier together this summer. He plans to stage the contest in Boy's Thirty Acres at Jersey City, or the Tankers Stadium, in June.

NO TITLE INVOLVED

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PARIS, March 19.—No world's championship was involved in the Siki-Mtigue fight at Dublin last Saturday night, according to Albert Bourdennat, vice-president of the French Boxing Federation, in a statement to L'Auto.

In the first place, the official said, "the rules require that an adversary of a champion must challenge formally, which Mtigue never did. Secondly, the referee must be appointed by the International Boxing Union. This condition was also violated."

He concluded that Siki may have been beaten by Mtigue, but he cannot lose his title of light-heavyweight champion because the fight was not for the title.

LONDON, March 19.—The boxing experts of Sporting Life and the Sportsman say Battling Siki's title of the world's light-heavyweight champion of the world was not affected by Saturday night's fight in Dublin, because Siki did not weigh in. Sporting Life asserts that the contract did not specify that Siki must weigh in, and that he fought at catch weights and consequently still holds his title. The Sportsman says nothing was said on the matter before the battle.

STANAGE SIGNS UP WITH VISALIA TEAM

HERRIN CRIMES ARE DESCRIBED

Brutal Murders of Workers Told in Court

Trial Resumed After Recess of Eleven Days

Union Executive Accused by Witness on Stand

(BY A. F. NORT WIRE.)
MARION (Ill.) March 19.—After a recess of eleven days, caused by the illness of the wife of one of the jurors, the prosecution today resumed the introduction of evidence against Hugh Willis, State executive board member for the United Mine workers, and five others, charged with murder in connection with the Herrin riots.

Willis, according to the testimony of Dr. O. F. Shipman, formerly a resident of Herrin, drove up to Miners' Hall at Herrin in an automobile toward midnight on June 21. Earlier the same day the hardware stores of Herrin and Marion had been robbed of arms and ammunition, the nonunion workers in the mines of the southern Illinois Coal Company had been attacked, and three union miners killed.

Dr. Shipman asserted there was

TEXTILE STRIKE LOOMING

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

FALL RIVER (Mass.) March 19.—Invested with full power to call a strike of thousands of mill hands who form the United Textile Workers of America, Thomas F. McMahon, president of the union, was expected here to address a meeting of the workers and tell them his plans. The probability of a general strike, which may affect the entire textile industry in New England, are growing more and more threatening. The United Workers are demanding an increase of 25 per cent in wages, to offset last year's cut of 23 per cent, and the textile workers' council, which embraces practically all the mill hands not affiliated with the United, has submitted demands for a 15 per cent increase.

A crowd before the hall when Willis arrived, and that he heard him say: "We've got the mine well guarded and nobody can get away. We can't do anything before daylight, when we can see. What I am most interested in is prevailing upon the sheriff not to get the troops there until we get the men out."

"The sheriff is our friend, and he told me '—then, they ought to have known better than to have come down here, but now that they are here, let them take what is coming to them."

"The sheriff is a good fellow, boys. He is loyal to us and we ought to take care of him at the fall election."

Melvin Thaxton, recently elected County Treasurer, was Sheriff at the time of the outbreak, but Dr. Shipman testified that he did not know to whom Willis was referring.

The next morning, according to previous witnesses, the forty-eight defenders of the mine laid down their arms and surrendered, after being assured of their safety. They were marched two miles, lined up before a barbed-wire fence and shot down as they fled.

Dr. Shipman said that he had seen six of the prisoners who had been recaptured marched, bleeding and pleading, through the streets of Herrin, by a jeering mob to a cemetery outside the town, where they were shot down in the road.

"The crowd at one point made them get down and crawl along on their hands and knees," he testified. Then they were all tied together with a piece of rope about their necks.

"I heard a boy shout 'Nearer, My God, to Thee,' and a man told them that if they had ever prayed in their lives to pray then."

NAVAL POLICY ATTACK SCORED

British Charges Answered by American Official

Points Made by Englishmen Declared in Error

United States Far Behind in Ship Construction

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, March 19.—Recent charges made by English naval writers that the naval policy of the United States was outside the spirit of the Washington Conference treaties are exhaustively answered by W. H. Gardner, vice-president of the Navy League of the United States, in an article he has prepared for the Forthnightly Review in which several of the British views have found expression.

Mr. Gardner's article was inspired, he says, by the fact that copies of it made public here, in the hope that "Anglo-American antagonism might be avoided." It is specifically an answer to Archibald Hurd, who recently answered in the affirmative the question: "Is the Washington naval treaty doomed?" In this latter article Mr. Hurd intimated that American naval authorities by advocating a construction program of cruisers and submarines were insinuating a revival of competitive building of warships that threatened to nullify the accomplishments of the conference.

QUOTED FACTS
Mr. Gardner insists and quotes facts and figures to show that the pace already has been set and the only construction advocated for the American Navy is of ships needed to give it the strength provided by the naval ratio by comparison with that of England and Japan in similar craft. Mr. Gardner takes up point by point certain "misconceptions" of Mr. Hurd. In categorically refuting the first misconception, the American writer calls attention to the verbatim extracts of the Washington Conference and says: "In short, the official documentary evidence is that the initial formal proposition of the United States was one looking to the ultimate limitation of capital ships and all auxiliaries in the tonnage ratio of 5-5-3-1."

Regarding the second "misconception" Mr. Gardner quotes statistics that show America is far behind both England and Japan in the construction of those types on which was based the criticism of our large program. He makes clear that the United States instead of setting the pace is merely trying to build up to the status provided by the treaty.

ANSWERS ASKED
"He concludes with three pertinent questions to be answered: "Would the British Empire and Washington now agree to limiting all their cruisers and all other surface auxiliary combatant vessels in accordance with the 5-5-3 ratio?" "Would the British Empire and Japan both now agree to limiting their submarines in accordance with the 5-5-3 ratio?" "Would Japan now agree to cancelling the limitation of inferior forts and naval vessels which she suggested and on which she insisted at the conference?"

SCORES SEE SICK MAN'S DEATH LEAP

Tubercular Patient Falls to Street From Sixth Floor of Chicago Hospital

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, March 19.—While scores looked on unable to prevent the tragedy, John Piskie, 1461 Cornell street, crawled out on a ledge on the sixth floor of the County Hospital, stood for a moment looking down into the street and then leaped to his death.

Attendants who had rushed up from the lower floors to intercept him reached the open window by which he had left his bed just in time to see him fall.

Piskie, who was 29 years of age, was taken to the hospital Saturday and placed in a ward to be treated for tuberculosis. The physicians who attended him said that, although his condition was serious, he had a fair chance for recovery. The hope thus held out, however, failed to end his dependency.

BRITISH ARE TO PAY FULL DEBT FOR YEAR

(BY A. F. NORT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The British government is preparing to make the full payment for this year under the recently negotiated refunding arrangement and, according to information reaching the Treasury Department today, will not exercise its option to defer half of its first yearly installment.

It is understood to be the intention of Great Britain to make its first payment of $50,000,000 on June 15. This amount is half of the yearly installment of interest provided in the agreement, the balance falling due December 15, when payment of $12,500,000 principal is expected also to be made.

RADIO WAR DEVELOPS IN EUROPE

Eiffel Tower Tries to Jam "Deutschland Uber Alles" Waves From Berlin

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

BERLIN, March 19.—A fierce war in the air is being waged between the Eiffel Tower radio and the Eberswalde plant near Berlin, where German experiments in wireless telephony are being conducted. The Eberswalde experimenters are running tests on the Ruhr and musical numbers like "Deutschland Uber Alles," or the battle song "As Conquerors Let Us Defeat France."

Eiffel Tower has been instructed to jam the Eberswalde broadcasts which reach Scandinavia, Finland and Moscow as well as Mid-Europe and the Balkans, so a crashing battle of electric waves rages daily in the empyrean.

When the Eberswalde station started broadcasting, honors were about even but now the Germans are bringing on reinforcements in the form of more powerful sending apparatus and are confident of winning the field of Central and Eastern Europe. They will also press the invasion westward into hitherto French territory.

GUARDS ARMED AFTER IRISH WRITE THREATS

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
LONDON, March 19.—Scotland Yard police guards, who hitherto have not been armed, were given automatic pistols today. It is understood the guards were armed after letters were received from Irish agitators threatening revenge for deporting the 100 Irish Republicans from England recently.

JUDGE CURTIS IS NAMED JUSTICE

Governor Puts Old Friend
on Appellate Bench

Jurist Highly Respected in San Bernardino

Representation Considered
in Appointment

(SACRAMENTO, March 19.—) Gov. Richardson today announced the appointment of Superior Justice J. W. Curtis of San Bernardino as Appellate Justice, to succeed Judge W. P. James, who has been appointed to the Federal bench. Judge Curtis has the support of the bar of San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties, and many attorneys in Los Angeles.

There is a large measure of satisfaction in this appointment, for Judge Curtis and the Governor were boyhood friends and schoolmates in the grammar school at San Bernardino.

In a statement today, Gov. Richardson said: "I have known Judge Curtis from boyhood, and I know he has the high integrity that is the first necessary qualification for any man who goes on the bench. Besides, he has the necessary legal learning and the judicial experience for this important place. While I have considered a number of highly competent men for the place, I believe none of them are superior to Judge Curtis. At the present time there are five Appellate Justices coming from Los Angeles county, and the other twelve counties in the district without representation on the bench. It has been pointed out that the majority vote in Los Angeles may make it difficult for a Judge residing in any of the outside counties to be elected when his term of office expires. If this be true, it would be unjust, and I cannot recognize the probable political injustice. The twelve counties in the district outside of Los Angeles county deserve representation on the bench, and I propose to give it to them. At the same time, I believe the electorate of Los Angeles will elect a Judge enough and fair enough to elect an outside man who proves his worth."

FAMOUS HUB OF MUSIC IS DESTROYED

Weisbaden Opera House
Built by Mozart Pupils
Razed by Flames

(BERLIN, March 19.—) Fire which raged for hours destroyed the famous Weisbaden Opera House, one of the most charming centers of music in Europe, built by the pupils of Mozart, and rebuilt by the Kaiser in 1884. The former Emperor equipped it with one of the best and biggest stages in Europe. All the opera stars of the last century performed at this great opera house.

Wagner's "Rienzi" was played last night. Fifteen minutes after the drop of the curtain a terrible crash was heard, and flames burst through the stage opening. By the time fire engines arrived the entire building was burning.

GIRL IN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL ENDS LIFE

(DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 19.—) Ruby McCreary, 16 years of age, sentenced to the State Industrial School, has taken her own life by drinking carbolic acid. There is report that the girl came from El Paso, where her mother lives, that her father, a veterinarian, is serving a term in the penitentiary for arson, committed in Phoenix, and that her commitment to the school was after requests made by the mother and a brother who were from Douglas to Texas in the First Cavalry. Here she had been a waitress in a local cafe. The girl had written her father in Florence, telling that she had been committed to the reform school, and that the letter would be the last ever received from her. She was under charge of a deputy sheriff and was talking with a friend when she suddenly seized the bottle of acid and swallowed its contents before it was torn from her. The County Attorney is investigating the matter in which the acid was obtained.

MOTHERS' CONGRESS OF ARIZONA ELECTS

(TUCSON, Ariz., March 19.—) Mrs. M. T. Phelps of Phoenix has been elected president of the Arizona branch of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers, succeeding Mrs. John Langdon of Clemenceau. Other officers chosen at the annual meeting, which has just closed, were Mrs. Tom Davenport of Tucson and Miss Mary McEachern of Prescott, vice president, Mrs. T. Brennan of Prescott, recording secretary, Mrs. O. D. Dittler of Phoenix, corresponding secretary, Miss Ethel Swartzland of Phoenix, treasurer, and Mrs. J. R. Malotte of Globe, auditor. At the sessions special discussions were conducted on the work of the Girl Reserves, Camp Fire Girls, Y.W.C.A. and Boy Scouts.

KLAN TAKES OVER FUNCTIONS OF LAW

(HOLBROOK, Ariz., March 19.—) The first news that a Klan of the Ku Klux has existence in this locality was contained in a letter addressed to a local weekly, with inclosure of $3 in currency for the cost of publication. The communication carries a warning that "bootleggers, gamblers and other law violators beware, for we are watching you, and you must either quit breaking the laws of our land or find a new home. You will never know when you are talking to a Klansman. There is a Klan here, that while the Klan is organized and is functioning, 'good citizens have no fear.'"

LEITRIM DOCTOR SHOT; DUBLIN MINE EXPLODES

(DUBLIN, March 19.—) Dr. Patrick McLeod was shot dead last night at Mohill, County Leitrim, by three men in trench coats. Four rifle shots were fired at the doctor, hitting him in the head and body.

At 2 a.m. a land mine was exploded at Black Rock, near Dublin, partially destroying a signal cabin of the railway station.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS INSTALLMENTS.
Rosalie, the youngest child of a well-to-do family, was a girl of fifteen, and was a very beautiful girl. She was a very kind and gentle girl, and was very popular with her friends. She was a very kind and gentle girl, and was very popular with her friends. She was a very kind and gentle girl, and was very popular with her friends.

Milda pointed again to the page in the prayer book. "There, this our brother. Father will say, 'Rosalie! This our sister.'"

She wiped them. She set her teeth. A new and most awful concern possessed her. "This our sister." Would father remember? When he came to brother, would he remember to say sister? And when "his" would he remember to say "her"? She searched for the word. A beautiful agitation seized her that father would forget. What would happen if he forgot?

And at the very first place father did forget! There were some from the church to the grave. They were grouped about that most terrible of deaths. The mother was clutching her mother's dear hand, and in her other hand held her prayer book.

PART TWO HOUSE OF WOMEN CHAPTER I

What anybody can have nobody wants; but what only one person can have there's a queue to get.

This is an elementary principle of the theory of human nature, and knowledge of it, and experience of its mighty truth, used to cause, during the three holiday periods of the year, a standing advertisement to appear on the front page of the Morning Post.

"High-class Ladies' School for the Daughters of Gentlemen of the Professions has UNEXPECTED VACANCY FOR ONE ONLY pupil at reduced terms. Mrs. Impact, Oakwood House School, St. John's Wood, London."

ONLY ONE pupil that was the magic touch.

The very first words addressed to Rosalie by her mother, after a short, sharp-featured girl of her own age, which then was Rosalie, who said to her sharply, "You're a One Only. I can see you are. Aren't you?"

"Well, I'm by myself," said Rosalie, not understanding, but most anxious to say the right thing. "Stupid, you're not," said the sharp girl, "because I'm with you. Did your mother see the advertisement in the Morning Post?"

The advertisement of this school? It happened that Rosalie knew her mother had seen it, for Aunt Belle had shown it to her and to them all "One Only" of the very best schools," Aunt Belle had said. "You see, it's only quite by chance there was a vacancy."

"Yes, she did," said Rosalie. "She's the cat's grandmother," said the sharp girl. "Never tell 'em for a person's name. Well, if your mother saw the advertisement, then you are a One Only at reduced terms, and I knew you were directly I saw you. Now, tell me, don't blink—mean, of course, you're an idiot; all idiots blink. Tell me, was that dress made for you, or was it cut down?"

"It was my cousin Leticia's," said Rosalie.

"Of course it was," returned the sharp girl very triumphantly. "Every One Only's clothes are cut down for her. Poopers! Do you know what a pooper is? A pooper is half a pooper and half a pauper. Every One Only's a pooper. Well, now you know what you are. You see that girl over there. Do you know what she is?"

Rosalie said she did not.

"She's a Red Indian," said the sharp girl. "Is she?" said Rosalie, much surprised, for the girl did not look like a Red Indian.

"Ask her," said the sharp girl. "Do you know what I am?"

Rosalie shook her head.

"Answer," said the sharp girl. "No, I don't," said Rosalie.

"I'm a Sultan," said the sharp girl. "All the nice girls are Sultans and the school belongs to them. Do I look nice?"

"Very," said Rosalie, though she did not think so.

"Then, didn't you know I was a Sultan? The school belongs to the Sultans. The One Onlys and the Red Indians are interlopers, especially the One Onlys. Always shudder when you see a Sultan. Shudder now."

Rosalie wriggled her shoulders. Again, pooper.

Rosalie repeated the wriggle. "Vanish, pooper," said the sharp girl, and herself sprang away with imperious crouching bounds, her

Japanese Riot Follows Insult to Outcast Girl

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
TOKIO, March 19.—Several persons have been killed and many wounded in a battle between the so-called "eta" outcasts and members of the Kokushikai conservative faction in the Nara Prefecture. The clash followed an insult to an outcast girl.

Both factions armed with rifles, swords and spears, are still lined up and further fighting is expected. The Nara Governor has wired the War Department at Tokio to dispatch troops immediately to prevent a possible uprising of the outcasts who have long been suppressed politically and socially.

One Only, Red Indians, Sultans. They were the three castes into which the girls divided themselves. One Onlys, the poopers brought by the advertisement. Red Indians, the daughters of parents resident in India; Sultans, the proud creatures who paid full fees and took their title from the nickname of the headmistress, the Sultana. This Oakwood House School in which Rosalie was placed to herself was one of those very big old houses with a spacious, walled-in garden that probably was occupied in the fifties somewhere, when St. John's Wood was out in the country, by a wealthy old city merchant who rode in to business two or three times a week, never dreaming that one day he would be going to stretch miles beyond St. John's Wood and his imposing residence go dropping down the hillside, girdling along the curbside, and down the dangerous traffic road up and down the Maiden Vale highway.

Those crocodiles! There was a news agent's shop just opposite the school, and one of the great excitement of the school was to get around the corner and see what the newspaper bills had to tell. There were about forty girls at the school, a crocodile twenty-five long—and on the days of sensational events the crocodile was used as a means of coming back in emotional little screams from the head of the crocodile, girdling along the curbside, and down the dangerous traffic road up and down the Maiden Vale highway.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(BY A. R. HIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, March 19.—Speculators for the advance succeeded in bidding up prices to substantial higher levels in virtually all sections of today's stock market, a number of the popular industrial issues making new high records for the year. Professional operations were aided by a fairly large volume of week-end buying orders from the outside, which were attracted by Saturday's rally, but the demand fell off perceptibly toward the close, when the call money rate was marked up to 6 per cent after standing at 5. The industrial averages closed at the highest level since the spring of 1929.

Steel operations were vigorously conducted in the domestic all group, buying being influenced by reports of dividend increases in the near future. New peak prices were established by Republic at 28 3/4, Producers and Bethlehem at 27 1/2 and Maryland at 47 1/2, while Texas Company declined the previous high at 57 1/2, the net gains ranging from 1/2 to 1 1/2 points.

New high prices were established in the equipment group by American Locomotive at 139 1/2, Baldwin at 144 1/2, Lima at 134 1/2, Pullman at 133 1/2, but most of these prices were shaded at the close. Gulf States Steel rose 1/2 point for the first time this year, and closed 1 1/2 points above Saturday's final price and Crucible gained 1 1/2, other steels closing fractionally higher.

Some of the other outstanding strong spots in the industrial list were National Lead, up 1/2; Union Tank, up 1/2; Pierce Oil, rose 1/2; Burns Brothers, A. up 1/2; American Woodmen, Associated Oil, Standard Oil, Phillips Petroleum, Du Pont, Loew-Wiles, E. I. du Pont, South American Sugar, White Motors and Public Service of New Jersey, up 1/2 to nearly 1 point.

Trading in rails was relatively quiet, although a few shares were accumulated on speculative representation of unusually favorable February earnings reports. Texas and Pacific jumped 1/2 point, Norfolk and Western preferred, 3/4, and Lake Shore and Baltimore and Ohio, 1/2.

Time money was quiet but firm with brokers bidding 1/2-1 and bankers asking 1/2-1. Some business being done at both rates. The commercial paper market was more active, the bulk of the prime names commanding 5 per cent.

Further strength of French francs, which were quoted just below 5.50 cents, was the feature of the foreign exchange market. Demand starting was quoted around 54.70, up about 1/2 cent. Canadian exchange was comparatively weak, falling to 97 1/2, a new low record for the year.

Days' total sales, 1,652,000 shares.

Twenty industrials averaged 101.74; net gain 54. High 1932, 101.36; low, 94.58.

Twenty railroads averaged 99.81; net gain 35. High 1932, 99.63; low, 84.53.

MARCH 20, 1923.—[PART I]

You Know This Company

The Los Angeles Gas & Electric Company and its predecessors have been in operation here for more than 40 years. It serves the greater part of Los Angeles with gas and electricity. South Pasadena, Alhambra and half a dozen other neighboring cities are supplied by this corporation exclusively.

The company is substantial, conservatively managed and prosperous. Its net earnings last year were more than $40 times annual interest charges on all its bonds.

The company's securities always have been considered first-class investments in all respects—safe, readily turned into cash if necessary, and bearing a reasonably high return.

We recommend the new General & Refunding Mortgage 5 1/2% Gold Bonds as excellent conservative investments, exempt from personal property tax in California.

Price, $7.75 and interest to yield about 5.70%.

Profit Taking Causes Losses in Grain Prices

GRAIN prices in the grain markets and other commodities have been dropping sharply since the middle of the month. The cause of this is the profit taking by the speculators who have been buying the grain at a high price and selling it at a lower price. This has caused a loss of profit for the speculators and a loss of income for the farmers.

FORTY-ONE YEARS WITHOUT LOSS TO ANY INVESTOR

A 12% INVESTMENT

With the Three Essentials for a Sound Security

1st SAFETY: Over 100% net tangible assets are behind each share outstanding, plus a "Goodwill" value due to many years of fair dealing, which cannot be computed.

2nd YIELD: 12% Cash Dividends (being paid 3% quarterly), plus periodical Stock Dividends to be issued against surplus profits from time to time.

3rd CONVERTIBILITY: Application will be made to list on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange as soon as present financing has been completed. No doubt a ready market at a premium will exist for this sound Security, which yields a very high rate of income.

The business has been established over seven years, and each $1000 originally invested has paid $400 in Cash Dividends, and $11.00 in Stock Dividends.

The Company is still being managed by the same capable men who organized it. They operate in a basic industry, supplying a daily necessity to the citizens in its territory.

If you wish to buy INCOME, with assurance of permanency, let us give you facts on this sound investment.

WOOLWINE WINS IN COURT FIGHT

Miss Jones Is Overruled in Back-Salary Plan Motion Branded as Personal Attack on Prosecutor

Ida Wright Jones, former juvenile instructor for the District Attorney's office, yesterday lost her first suit against Thomas L. Woolwine, District Attorney, when Judge McLucas in Superior Court threw out her application for a writ to recover salaries awarded to her from May of last year until the present time.

Suit Involving Large Sum Still Pending

The original trouble between Mr. Woolwine and Miss Jones was spectacular and became public when the District Attorney announced that he had discharged her because she had threatened to make affidavits to his political enemies that he had had improper relations with her over a period of several years while she was in his employment.

HYDE PARK TO DECIDE TODAY ON ANNEXATION

Hyde Park will vote today on the question of annexation to Los Angeles. The vote is expected to be heavy as the issue has been heatedly debated on both sides. A mass meeting was held last night by the annexationists at Hyde Park boulevard and Pearl avenue, at which Mrs. Frank H. Hays, president of the Hyde Park Annexation and Improvement Association, presided.

THE LAUNDRESS TALKS

I didn't come last week. No, I didn't send word, but I know that wasn't right. I hope it didn't hurt for you, but—Yes, ma'am, I know it ain't easy to have clothes of the last minute, and having clothes lying around the house—Yes, ma'am, I know all that. But you see my mother-in-law, she had to bury her Thursday. She was sick last week. It was just a week. When she came on Monday I thought it was just a little cold—the kind that you get when you're sick. Yes, she was always something. I guess there has to be with old folks. I'm 50 now, and I ain't no better. I didn't use to have to wash clothes, but now I do. I don't get over it, and I don't get over it. But she got over it, and I got over it. I was on my feet, and I was always afraid something would happen to me. I need to straighten up from my washboard. Yes, ma'am, I don't mind my crying. It's—It's because I feel so much better!

LETTERS TO THE TIMES

Best to the Editor of The Times: (To the Editor of The Times.) In your paper for the 15th and 16th last, there was a review on "Grumpy," playing at Grampa's Metropolitan Theater, and both for some unknown reason insisted on giving the credit of the fine acting of the chief to Charles Ferguson, while it really belonged to Charles French. Charles Ferguson not being in the cast. For people whose business this is, it seems to me, a very careless mistake, as the name was on the screen as well as the program, also any one should know the difference between the two. Naturally being a fan-boy and devoted "movie hound," this has worried me greatly, so I thought I'd call your attention to this, so that you could advise them to either see the plays or be better guessers.

Would Trees Run Rough
REDLAND, March 19.—(To the Editor of The Times.) Having noted in an early issue of your excellent paper a brief editorial under the heading "The Masquerader," it seems a peculiar thing in New York is quoted as saying that Abraham Lincoln would have been sent to the penitentiary instead of the Presidency had there been an Espionage Act in force in the United States. Where in the world did the Senator get that stuff, which is all bunk? Should the Senator have made such an expression of sentiment as that to an assembly in New York or anywhere else in the United States of the time Abraham Lincoln was shot by an assassin, he certainly would have been lynched to the nearest tree or telegraph pole. A true 100 per cent American would not allow him a chance to breathe between the walls of a penitentiary. I fear that the Senator has made himself out as such a dangerous demagogue that it will not be surprising if the members of the Ku Klux Klan will endeavor to kidnap him and give him a coat of tar and feathers in these critical times.

JOHN CHARLES HUTCHINGS
FICTION CLOUDS FACTS
POMONA, March 17.—(To the Editor of The Times.) It is not time to call a halt on the hysteria which has marked practically all the recent discussion on this subject. A newspaper recently asserted that at least four million of our people were addicted to dope. It is estimated that less than half of 1 per cent of our population is in bondage to narcotic drugs. The vast majority of our people are in the hands of the law, and the percentage of addicts is much larger.

Now what are the facts? From reliable data furnished by the medical profession, by social workers and criminal investigators, it is estimated that less than half of 1 per cent of our population is in bondage to narcotic drugs. The vast majority of our people are in the hands of the law, and the percentage of addicts is much larger. When it comes to rents in Los Angeles, words fail me; they are simply beyond endurance. I know people who have been renting property for years, paying the rent promptly and making good use of it; but when the landlord begins to raise the rent, the rent is doubled or tripled, and sometimes even more than that. And if they objected (as

So easy to take care of fine Linoleum floors

THERE are hard ways to clean linoleum, and there is also an easy way to keep it in spick-and-span condition. Here are a few simple directions. Cut them out and keep them for reference:

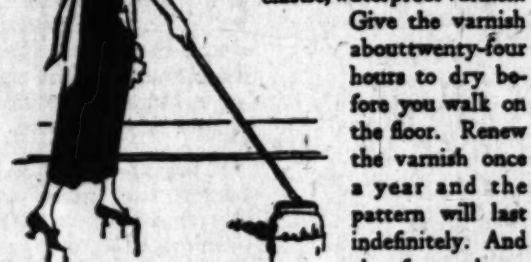

When you wash linoleum

In the kitchen, pantry, and bathroom, where water is likely to be spilled, linoleum has to be washed frequently. Use warm, sudsy water and a good, mild soap like Ivory. Wash about a square yard at a time, rinse, and dry carefully.

Don't use alkaline soaps or scrubbing powders. They will harm any finely finished wood or linoleum. Don't allow water to stand around the edges or seams of the linoleum. Moisture may seep through and make the floor damp.

Varnish printed linoleum

If you have printed linoleum you can make the design wear longer by varnishing it. Wash your linoleum floor and then give it two coats of colorless, elastic, waterproof varnish. Give the varnish about twenty-four hours to dry before you walk on the floor. Renew the varnish once a year and the pattern will last indefinitely. And the fine, glossy varnished surface is easily wiped up as needed with a damp cloth.

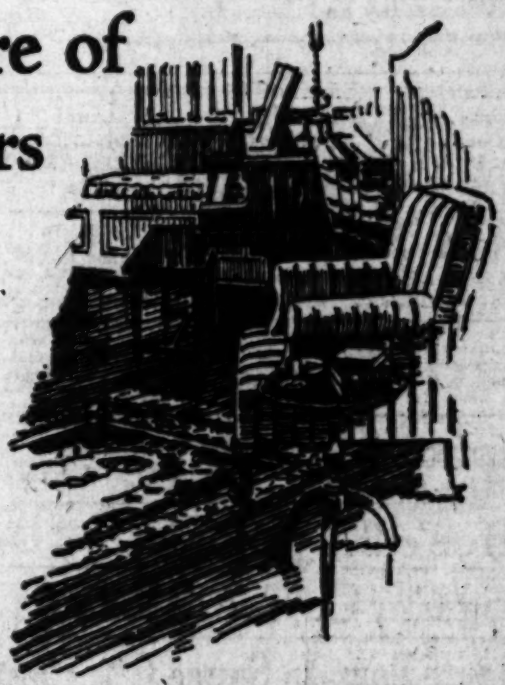

It's a simple task to keep a smooth linoleum floor looking bright and clean. A few strokes with a dry mop at dusting time does the work.

Wax inlaid and plain linoleum

The easy way to take care of inlaid, plain, or jaspé linoleum is to wax it. If you are getting new linoleum, wash it as soon as it is laid. Then give it two thin coats of a standard floor wax.

Rub the wax thoroughly into the linoleum, and polish with a weighted brush. This smooth, polished surface is easy to keep looking its best. About all you need to do is go over it every day with a dry mop. At the doorways, and wherever the wear is heavy, you will have to renew the wax occasionally. You can take up muddy footprints with a damp cloth.

Once or twice a year you may restore the wax coating completely. That is all the refinishing the floor ordinarily will require. Under such care the linoleum actually gets better-looking. Time gives it a rich, mellowed appearance. Remember, don't use the old-fashioned scrubbing-brushes and scouring-soaps on linoleum. It's a hard way to clean, and it isn't necessary. Waxing is the better way.

Write for free sample and booklet

Let us send you a sample of Armstrong's Linoleum and our 24-page booklet, "New Floors for Old," containing a score of color-plates of distinctive designs that you can see at good stores—jaspé, carpet inlaid, tile inlaid and printed patterns; also, information on laying linoleum and on how to care for your linoleum floor.

You can also buy Armstrong's Linoleum rugs in printed or inlaid patterns, in four sizes, from 6 x 9 feet to 9 x 12 feet.

Linoleum permanently stained or discolored can be restored to its original color and shine.

Good Bread— In Sickness or Health

Do not wait for illness to learn the health-giving qualities of good bread. When you watch the nurse slice HOLSUM at meal time remember that the right bread previously, might have helped to ward off illness by providing proper nourishment.

You know, of course, that your body requires a certain amount of energy building food each day to maintain health. You did not know, perhaps, that a pound of HOLSUM contains 38 per cent of your daily requirements.

So, whether your health be good or not, be sure that your diet provides an ample supply of HOLSUM. No single food will serve your body needs better. But, because "There's a difference in bread," be sure of your bread by insisting on HOLSUM.

You'll like this delicious recipe:

Eggs Neapolitan

1 egg
1 cup tomato soup
1 cup water
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon dry mustard

1 small teaspoonful salt
few grains cayenne
2 teaspoonfuls Worcestershire sauce
½ cup finely cut sharp cheese
Toasted points, per day

Have ready hot platter with rounds of buttered toast. Mix tomato soup and water, and heat in shallow skillet. Break eggs into this sauce, poach slowly, and remove to toast rounds. Blend butter and flour, add seasonings, and stir into liquid remaining in pan. When smooth, add cheese, and continue stirring until cheese is perfectly melted and blended with the sauce. Pour around eggs, garnish platter with toast points and parsley, and serve at once.

Daily Prune Recipe

Shake hands with health every day.

Sunsweet Prunes Stewed:

First—Soak them in warm water to cover, over night if possible—but if not, for several hours at least. Second—cook them slowly until tender in the water in which they were soaked. Third—be sure you don't cook them too long for they will become too soft. Sugar is not required, as slow cooking brings out the rich fruit sugar in Sunsweet Prunes. If sugar is added, however, put it in after the prunes are cooked but while still hot so the sugar will dissolve. Most of the liquid will be absorbed, leaving a rich, thin syrup.

CALL WIZARD IN FRAZELLE CASE

Magician Testifies for Man in Divorce Suit

Denies Wife's Charges That
Mate Gambled

Asserts Trick Cards Made for Stage Purposes

Declaring that he had neither gambled nor dealt with gamblers for seven years, Herbert Frazelle, who is being sued for divorce by his wife, Naomi Frazelle, produced yesterday before Judge Hewitt in Superior Court witnesses to show that his manufacture of trick cards and educated dice was purely for stage purposes.

Principal among these was Alexander Conlin, known as "Alexander the Great," a magician, who testified that Frazelle was a "clever magician" and that he had purchased trick cards and dice from him on many occasions. Conlin testified there were 14,000 stage magicians in the United States and Canada and that supplying them with novelties was a lucrative business.

He said Frazelle was better than Conlin in following out ideas suggested by the wizard.

Frazelle himself took the stand toward the close of the day's session and denied his wife's accusations of cruelty. The only time he ever struck her, he said, was one night when he said he surprised her in the kitchen in company with Dr. Leaf. The husband said she followed him upstairs and berated him. Then he lost his temper, he admitted, and slapped her. He declared his wife's story of taking refuge in the kennel of Beardsley King, a fighting bulldog, to escape him was the product of her imagination.

"As for my taking her to doghouse, I never did so," he said.

He also testified that he had blers for seven years.

AVERS WIFE WAS PROFANE

Josephine Roben and Adolph
Roben for divorce on the ground that for long periods she refused to talk to her. Yesterday the husband filed a cross-complaint in which he admitted he had refused to talk to his wife and said the reason was a tendency on the part of his wife to burst into profanity when he attempted conversation.

Therefore, he says, he kept silence,
hoping his wife would do likewise.

Roben also asserted in his cross-complaint that when his wife refused to attend social affairs she locked the children in the house.

CENSORSHIP FIGHT URGED

New York Theater Owners Are Told System Is Iniquitous and un-American in Principle

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, March 19.—Motion-picture theater owners in New York State are urged to do their part in the fight on the screen censorship law in letters mailed today by Peter J. Brady, president of the State Allied Printing Trades Council.

"On the 6th inst. a joint hearing was held in the Senate chamber on the Walker-O'Connor bill to abolish motion-picture censorship," the letters say. "It fully demonstrated that all of the reform forces and blue law advocates are well organized and doing effective work to keep this iniquitous and un-American law upon the statute books."

"Since this is a fight for freedom and justice, especially for the people who patronize your theater, it is up to you to do your part in helping to abolish censorship which does not, and never can, censor. Therefore, write letters and interview your Assemblymen and Senators and point out to them the great burden this law is to the industry and how this additional expense must be passed on to your patrons."

The appeal closes by citing twelve reasons for doing away with the censorship commission.

FARNUM CRAVES GENTLER ROLES

Hard-Fisted Cinema Hero to Quit Battle Films

Asserts He Will Henceforth Act Gentleman's Part

If Plans Succeed He Will Enter Independent Field

William Farnum, hard-boiled cinema hero since films were first planned to abandon his round haircut roles for those requiring open-faced vests, hard-boiled shirts, more forks and fewer knives.

In other words, Farnum's leading "nature's noblemen" craves action as a denatured and debonair gentleman of leading roles in society dramas. And what is more, he is going to have them, for he says he intends to enter the independent motion-picture producing field.

Henceforth the falling Farnum star, which for years have enriched the coffers of William Fox, will be subdued and manured and will master the high-handed handshake of the haute monde and the gentle art of cigarette flicking for the benefit of the Farnum bank account.

SYNOPSIS FOR FIGHT
For years motion-picture patrons have held Farnum as a synonym for fighting. He has been the motion-picture's fiercest and most popular hero, a hard-boiled lumberjack, a stevedore with calloused palms, in fact in every imaginable kind of role portraying the ultimate victory of matter over mind. Farnum has been the discipline of the virility which eating pie for breakfast is supposed to engender.

The camera has recorded his films in every clime, and language, in every costume and in every circumstance in which film might supplant the retort courteous without undue departure from the context of the original manuscript from which his scenarios were adapted.

As a homely, honest hero of the common herd he has fought one should properly say, "Mr. Farnum," ranger, cattle-rustler, sailor, "revenuers," politician, thug, yegga, gunner, villain, sheep-herder, and the like. He has done more than any other single star in the screen world toward the advancement of studio hospitals. And now he wants to lick stamps as a matinee idol.

CONTRACT EXPIRES
Walls and lamentation arise from the Fox New York office, for what Farnum says will be his last contract with that concern has expired. Admittedly he was one of Fox's greatest assets, but he is done for the public for anyone but himself, he declares.

Details of his venture into the independent production field are now being worked out. Coupled with his own ample means will be the resources of prominent motion-picture magnates, he avers. A formal announcement of his plans will be forthcoming in a few days.

In the meantime, while Mr. Farnum is at Catalina preparing for his metamorphosis, his secretary at the palatial Farnum home overlooking the city from the heights of Hollywood, answers the front door in his shirt-sleeves.

Use Great Staff in 'Notre Dame' Screen Lighting

With 101 electricians working on one set at one time it is believed that a new pace in the electrical phase of motion-picture production is being set at Universal City.

Harry D. Brown, electrical expert in charge of the lighting effects for the night shooting on the mammoth exterior sets in the filming of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," has marshaled eighty-nine regular electricians and twelve reserves to handle the hundreds of Klieg and sun-arc that are scattered over the vast area covered by the set.

The light reflected when all of the lights are turned on totals close to 100,000,000 candle power.

So great is the light that from a distance it resembles a miniature day in the hollows of the night. More than 1200 extras are used nightly besides the regular cast in this screen picture, in which Lon Chaney stars as the hunchback.

BABY MARY ROSE OUT OF DANGER
Baby Mary Rose, 6-year-old star of the Shell Craft Studio, was reported out of danger yesterday following a severe attack of double pneumonia, her mother announced yesterday. Baby Mary had just completed a comedy entitled "Means and Motors" before she was stricken with pneumonia.

HE DARKENED HIS GRAY HAIR
Tells How He Did It
Mr. J. A. McCord, a well-known resident of California, who was called Daddy and Grandpa on account of his white hair, and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Borax Compound and 1 ounce of glycerine.

"These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

GOLDWYN SIGNS DIRECTOR-STAR

James Kirkwood, Director and Star of the Screen

Now it's James Kirkwood, director and star of the screen, and until this week star of the New York company of "The Fool," who has been signed by Goldwyn Pictures Corporation to a long-term contract.

A telegram from the home office in New York to the studio states that the contract was signed yesterday, and that Mr. Kirkwood would leave New York Thursday for Los Angeles, going at once to the home studio to play opposite Mrs. Wallace Reid in her "antidote" picture before beginning work at Goldwyn.

Mr. Kirkwood has been Mary Pickford's leading man and her director since his beginning with Biograph. On the stage, he has played under David Belasco's management, opposite such stars as Blanche Bates, Margaret Anglin, Harry Miller, etc. He has directed pictures in eastern studios and in California, among them being "Billie's Boy," with Jack Pickford.

Pictures in which he played prominent roles are "The Luck of the Irish," "In the Heart of a Fool" and "The Scuffer." For Goldwyn he played in "The Branding Iron" and "The Sin Flood." He prefers to play strong character roles.

Mr. Kirkwood was born in Grand Rapids, Mich., and started his career with a stock company in New York.

FORTUNE IN FURNITURE FOR FILM

Five Carloads of Old French Settings En Route for "Ashes of Vengeance"

Five carloads of furniture of the Louis XV and Louis XVI periods of France—valued at $15,000—are en route to Los Angeles for use in the Norma Talmadge photoplay, "Ashes of Vengeance," which will start tomorrow at the United Studios, with Frank Lloyd directing.

This furniture was purchased for Joseph M. Schenk by Thomas Little, head of the studio property department, who returned yesterday from New York.

Treasures of centuries, paintings, the apogee of many famous masterpieces; oval mirrors, heavy silk draped with gold leaves; gold tables garlanded with exquisitely carved roses and pink marble topped; embroidered panels, bronzes, gold knobs and the big chairs of the period, hand carved, are included in the trainload.

Financier From New York Here to Survey Films

Walter Roselle, member of the New York Stock Exchange and one of the best-known brokers in New York, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday for a stay of two weeks, in which time he expects to make a survey of the motion-picture industry.

While here Mr. Roselle will be the house guest of Joseph M. Schenk, largest independent producer of films in the world. Mr. Roselle handles a considerable amount of the stock brokerage business of producers and stars as well as theatrical celebrities.

"I can see in the future Los Angeles the largest city in the United States," Mr. Roselle said, "I predict that by 1940 your city will rank next to New York and Chicago and I have so much confidence in this city that I have already invested heavily."

Cinema 'Props' Company to Put Up Fine Building

A $100,000 building is to be erected on the corner of Santa Monica Boulevard and Lodi Place for the Cinema Properties Company.

The structure will be four stories in height, and will have a frontage of 50 feet on Santa Monica Boulevard and a depth of 115 feet. It will be of brick and concrete, clean construction, and will contain the most up-to-date equipment available.

The general construction contract has been awarded to McDonald & Kahn, and ground is to be broken this week. The Cinema Properties Company hopes to occupy its new home by July 1.

To the Girl with the Solitaire Ring

It might be a good thing if critics of the modern young woman could take a peek into the Hope Chest of the girl who is just engaged. The frilly things would be there—but so would a lot of good practical work aprons. The American girl of today knows the psychological moment to swap a string of dancing partners for a real home and a real husband. She's the kind you don't have to talk to much about Hotpoint Servants. She sees them as beautiful appointments to her house—and daily first aids to getting the work done up. As an alert shopper she understands what is happening in electric equipment prices and values. And time only serves to confirm her respect for the fine practical quality of Hotpoint Servants.

Important Announcement

Rare indeed is the woman these days who needs to be reminded of the many ways that electricity can help in her household tasks.

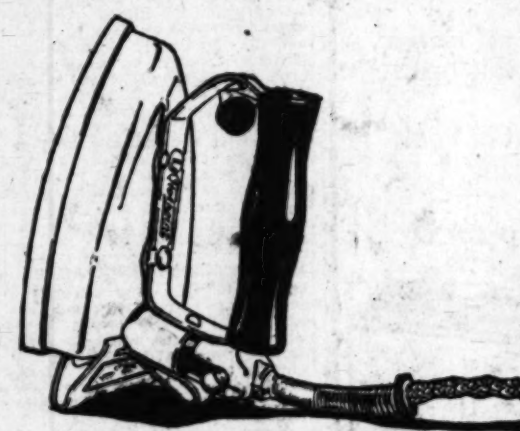

But—electricity can serve you well and economically only when applied through scientific equipment.

The Hotpoint Servants are designed and made for practical, economical household work over a period of years.

The result of constant testing and refinement by the Engineers of the Hotpoint Laboratories.

No user of Hotpoint Servants could afford to have us slight our high standard of manufacture, simply to compete with an article of lesser price and reputation.

And we will NOT.

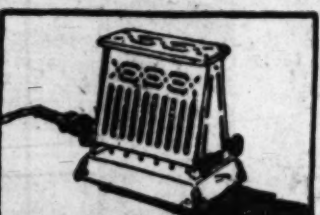

The Hotpoint Iron has the strength-saving Contalver Handle—the force applied in a straight line through the arm and wrist. The Hinged Plug Cord Protector—going away with jerking, bending and breaking of the cord. And the Stretched Spring—the iron is simply lifted back on its heel—saving many hundreds of pounds of lifting in a day. The Hotpoint Iron saves wrist, saves steps, saves clothes, makes house laundering the most satisfactory laundering in the world.

Studio Club Is Successful in Fund Campaign
With subscriptions which continued to come in at a late hour last night indicating that the Hollywood Studio Club's drive to raise $150,000 for the erection of a new building at 6123 Carlos avenue had been successful, workers in the new structure movement are preparing this morning to begin a series of post-campaign activities which are expected to add materially to the fund.

These activities will center on the opening of Charles Ray's studio where his reproduction of the Mayflower will be on exhibition to the general public on Friday and Saturday of this week. Admission which will be charged will be turned over to the Studio Club building fund.

The second event in the post-campaign activities will be the Studio Club special performance of "Robin Hood" at the Hollywood Egyptian Theatre on Friday. Through the courtesy of Sir Lancelotti, Sid Grauman and others allied in the ownership of the theater, a large percentage of the receipts of Friday will be turned over to the Studio Club fund.

The campaign formally closed with a rally and dinner at the Masonic Temple last night.

DEATH TRILOGY
IS COMPLETEDRalph Dominguez Perfects
Cycle of MortalityWas Los Angeles Federal Court PioneerEnd Not Unexpected; Funeral at 10 A.M. Today

The trilogy of deaths at the Federal Building is complete. This cycle of Old Mortality is added. Alfred Moore, clerk in the Court of the City of Los Angeles, was the first to go. He was followed by George W. Hassen, for thirty-five years in the secret service of the United States Treasury Department. The link is welded by the sudden death of Ralph J. Dominguez, who has been a fixture of the Federal Courts ever since the establishment of the courts in this city. With Judge Foster M. Hays as the first United States District Judge, in 1857.

Mr. Dominguez died suddenly Sunday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Guadalupe Dominguez, 118 West Washington street. He had retired for the night, but feeling a seizure of his old heart trouble coming on, got out of bed and rushed into the room of his aged mother, adjoining.

"I am dying, mother," he said, and fell over dead. He was born in this city Oct. 25, 1864.

OF OLD SPANISH FAMILY
He belonged to one of the best-known Spanish families in Southern California, the original forerunners, Natividad and Cristobal Dominguez, recently the emigrants of land known as the historic Dominguez Ranch, from the El Rio of Spain. The father of the dead official, Rosario Dominguez, was a son of Natividad Dominguez, one of the two early owners of more than 50,000 acres of land. Rosario Dominguez died many years ago, but his widow, Guadalupe, still survives and it was at her home that the son died.

Ralph Dominguez had three brothers and three sisters—Frank E. Dominguez, the well-known criminal attorney; Robert R. Clerk of the City Council; Arthur W. for years connected with the city's fire department; Mrs. Victoria B. Nunnally and Mrs. Anna Ehrenhardt, of this city; and Mrs. Chortia Dair, of Tucson, Ariz. Mr. Dominguez served the government in continuous service with the government. The first appointment of Dominguez was in 1881 under D. H. Hays, United States Marshal. He continued under Nicholas Covarrubias, and in turn served under United States Marshals Osborn, Gard, Youngworth, Walton and Gitt. His duties as deputy marshal were added to those of official interpreter of the courts, and he served in that dual capacity for many years. Following the promotion of Judge Ross to the United States Circuit Court of Appeal, and the appointment of the late Judge Olin Wellborn to the post, in 1926, Mr. Dominguez was chief clerk during all that period, for with the resignation of Judge Wellborn in 1931, he assumed the position under Judge Trippett, and was on duty there last week.

HONORED BY COURT
At the opening of the local Federal Court yesterday in Judge Trippett's department, the court paid a tribute to the deceased.

A son of the original Spanish families, Ralph Dominguez had all the romance, optimism and good cheer that belongs to the pure Castilians. He was everybody's friend, and no duty was too hard for him to perform in their behalf. His purse and his heart were open to all, and if he did not happen to have the money that some day and outer required, he would borrow it. He was a remarkable picture figure about the Federal Building, for he had been on the job ever since the Federal Court was organized and held its first session at Spring and Commercial streets.

He had seen Los Angeles grow from where Second street formed the southern boundary of the future metropolis, to a metropolis of almost a million souls.

Mr. Dominguez had been ailing with a heart trouble for several years. About six months ago he suffered a seizure that kept him in bed for many hours. During the last week of his life he believed that his end was near. A few days before his demise he told his aged mother that when he died he wanted no fuss or feathers about it. He only wanted friends to see him laid away. Just before he succumbed at the unveiling of the Judge Wellborn memorial on the 12th inst., he feared that he would not be spared to do the honor for his old friend. To Deputy U. S. Marshal Shortridge he said: "Chortley, I may not be here to pull the string, if you set, be careful and do it right." For Judge Wellborn was his friend. He had no fear of death, but he had a premonition that he was not to be long spared, and talked about it freely to his intimate friends.

The funeral will be tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at St. Vincent's Church, Washington street and Grand avenue, with the following list of pall-bearers made up of his old associates at the Federal Building: U. S. Marshal A. C. Rittel; W. H. Leasing; C. E. Rice; E. H. Young; Deputy U. S. Marshal Daniel J. O'Leary and Vincent J. Monteleone, U. S. Deputy

Police Raise Spirits From Hidden Grave

Spirits of Johnny Walker, and the famous "Tom and Jerry" twin, whose last rites were solemnized some years ago by one Volstead, yesterday rose from "dry" ground in all their pristine vigor. At least that's what Detective George Contreras and his squad of investigators from the District Attorney's office said, and they point to a number of yawning holes in the back yard of a house out on Downey Road to prove it.

The detective and his men descended on the place, which is near the Laguna school, in the vicinity of the Three Points Crossroads, and went scouting in the back yard with spades. They declared that the "spirits" rose at once to their promptings, and they proceeded to take them riding in a car. The revelation of these spirits during these dry get-dry days were getting ready to leave it any longer, he declared.

OBJECTS TO BEING
AMBULANCE DRIVER

There were said to be several causes for the separation of Max Handschick and his wife, May, but the principal one, he asserted in an answer and cross-complaint filed yesterday in Superior Court, was the way he says Mrs. Handschick made him spend his Sundays.

Mrs. Handschick had a lot of invalid friends, the husband said, and every Sunday he said he was compelled to take them riding in his car. The revelation of these spirits during these dry get-dry days were getting ready to leave it any longer, he declared.

W. W. ZIMMER DIES
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

William W. Zimmer, resident of Los Angeles for many years, died at his home last night after an illness extending back to last August. He was 50 years old.

Mr. Zimmer was active in the University Christian Church and in affairs of the community in which he resided. He had contracted a grocery store at Thirty-Ninth and Normandie for a business of years.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS IS DEFENDANT IN SUIT

Allen Holubar and his wife, Dorothy Phillips, both well known in silver-sheet circles, were made defendants yesterday in a suit for $1000 filed in Superior Court by Light & Retlaw, Inc., through the concern's attorney, Lloyd Wright. The firm asserts it obtained for Mrs. Holubar a contract with the Principal Pictures Corporation, in which she received $20,000, but failed to pay any commission.

EAGLES OFF TO WORK
FOR OLD-AGE PENSION

A delegation from the Fraternal Order of Eagles from Los Angeles Aerie, No. 102, headed by Fred Frank, chairman of the Old Age Pension committee, left for Sacramento last night to appear before a committee of the Senate and Assembly tonight at a hearing on the proposed measure to grant an old age pension in California. The bill, which has been sponsored by Eagles throughout the State, has been introduced in the lower House by Assemblyman Emma Worthy President of the local aerie, and to the upper House by Senator Murphy of San Francisco.

The image shows a close-up of a page from an old, handwritten manuscript. The paper is aged, yellowed, and stained with dark spots. The text is written in a dark, cursive script, likely from the 16th or 17th century. The text is arranged in columns, and the ink is faded and smudged. The page is bound in a dark, textured cover, visible on the left edge. The text is mostly illegible due to the poor condition of the manuscript.
